WHERE DID WORSHIP GO?

Some of you may have noticed that your worship email didn't arrive on time this past Sunday. Apparently, there was a world-wide issue with the internet that affected the website we use to send emails. If this happens again in the future, please know you can find the link to worship on our Facebook page or our YouTube channel. On either site, if you search for "Crestwood Christian Church," you should be able to find us. Previously recorded services are also available there. Thanks for your understanding!

HOPE IN THE WILDERNESS

FALL SERMON SERIES

SERMON:
Manna in the Desert

Exodus 16

Rev. Kory Wilcoxson

Many times in scripture, biblical characters are forced to spend time in the wilderness. In the Bible, the wilderness signifies a place of testing, of struggle, of being lost and searching. That sounds a little bit like today's world, doesn't it? Our isolation and the fear of the unknown can feel like time spent in the wilderness. For our fall sermon series, we're looking at people in the Bible who spent time in the wilderness to see what we can learn from them about our own journeys. We can take heart that God is always with us, even in the wilderness, and therefore there is always reason to have hope.
